Complimentary Banquet Tendered E. W. Simpson

Respected Secretary-Treasurer Honored After 30 Years' Service; Presented With Illuminated Address

Over 100 attended a complimentary banquet given for E. Walter Simpson at the Adelphi Hotel on Tuesday night last, tendered in honor of his having served the Municipality of Crown No. 399 as Secretary-Treasurer for over 30 years. It was a most successful event. Twelve municipalities were represented at the gathering, while Alberta government officials included Alex. Souter, Deputy Minister of Municipal Affairs, and Joseph Renshaw, Chief Inspector, Department of Municipal Affairs, of Edmonton. After a sumptuous dinner, G. T. Jackson, who acted as chairman, paid a glowing tribute to the sterling qualities of the guest of the evening. Representing the town, T. Wilks, acting mayor of Lacombe, regretted the inability of Mayor Jones to attend and welcomed the visitors. He referred to the pleasant relations which always existed between the town and M.D. of Crown, which was in no small degree due to Mr. Simpson, whom he warmly congratulated, and hoped he would be spared to carry on his good work for many years to come. O. W. Hueppelheuser, Reeve of M.D. of Crown, expressed his pleaseure in seeing such a large gathering, which showed the high esteem in which Mr. Simpson was held in the district, and said it was his pleasing duty to present him with an illuminated address, which read as follows:

E. WALTER SIMPSON

Sir—You have served for more than 30 years as Secretary-Treasurer of the Municipal District of Crown No. 399. You have worked year after year with Departmental officials, councillors, both old and new, experienced and inexperienced, and your work has been of tremendous value to the ratepayers of the District. Your assistance and advice to successive councils in their endeavor to apply and benefit from the ever changing and ever increasing number of statutes and regulations have always been given with the welfare of the Municipality as the foremost thought in your mind.

During your term of office your splendid devotion to the welfare of the Municipality, your diligence and courtesy have merited our highest appreciation and regard.

While we cannot adequately express our thanks for the services you have given for so many years, nevertheless we take this means of publicly acknowledging our gratitude.

We trust that for many years to come we may continue to benefit from your advice and counsel.

Signed on behalf of the Municpal District of Crown No. 399.

O. W. Hueppelheuser, Reeve; Hugh Reed, J. A. Bradley, John Ellis, F. A. Gralapp, Fred J. S. Sissons, representing the ratepayers.

The address was a beautiful hand work of art.

Alex Souter, Deputy Minister of Municipal Affairs, expressed his pleasure in being present at such a function, and humorously remarked he recently read that the mortality rate among M.D. secretaries was very high, and he thought anyone who could stick it for over 30 years has "what it takes," and must be some sort of super-man. He was not sure whether the Red Deer river arrived in the district first or Walter Simpson.

Set a Fine Example

He paid great tribute to Mr. Simpson's work and said he set an ex-

Bentley Young People's Play Proves Success

BENTLEY.—A good crowd was in attendance at the Bentley Community Hall on Friday evening last, when the Young People's Society of the United Church presented the three-act play, "Danny Boy."

The characters were well taken. Rev. Mr. Warren as "Danny Boy"; Miss Hazel Garries as his mother, who unconsciously had thought of him as a little boy when a grown man and had him tied to her apron strings, and Miss Margaret Pringle, as Mona, his wife, took the leading roles with credit.

A determined wife, an over-sympathetic mother, two kid-sisters, an ardent lover, a hen-pecked professor, an irrate boss and an ambling Negro given life by the pen of Edward Finnigan, made a play most enjoyable for all.

Others taking part were Miss Elsie Dicau, Mona's friend; the Misses Olive Trimble and Phyllis Thorp, Danny's sisters; Messrs. Allan Hewitt, Danny's employer; Ellwood Miles, a young dandy paying attention to Danny's wife; Vernon Miles, the truck driver husband of Danny's sister; Raymond Peterson, the absent-minded professor Andy Trimble, the truck driver's Negro assistant, and Roy Dicau, the policeman.

Members of the Society who were not included in the cast were kept busy on an advertising campaign. The co-operation shown by the members of the Society was sufficient reward for the effort, and the financial returns were very satisfying. The proceeds will be used for church purposes.

The first of these parties will be held at the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. John Sibbald, two and one half miles north of Rimbey and Mrs. A. McLees has offered her home for the second. School Students Awarded Prizes

Annual I.O.D.E. Prizes Presented By Mrs. H. M. Jones On Friday Afternoon

Local school students who had obtained the required academic standing in the final tests last June, were presented with the annual prizes offered by the Lord Lascelles Chapter of the I.O.D.E. on Friday afternoon, Nov. 20th. Students qualifying were Helen Trame, grade eight, $5.00; Margaret Finlayson, grade nine, $5.00 and Isabelle MacKenzie, grade 11, $10.00. Certificates were also presented to the winners.

With a few remarks anent his previous experience with the work of the I.O.D.E., Principal R. Warren introduced the Order's representative, Mrs. H. M. Jones, Honorary Regent, who before making the presentations, told the story of Mary Jones, a Welsh girl, who had walked 50 miles in all, to purchase a Bible, and who also walked two miles every Saturday afternoon to prepare her Sunday School lesson. Mrs. Jones impressed upon the young people the privileges they enjoyed today in having the Bible which contains the best literature the world offers, at their disposal.

Accompanying Mrs. Jones were Mrs. T. F. Roberts, vice-regent; Mrs. R. G. Gilmour, standard bearer; Mrs. G. Machor, Mrs. R. Sansbury and Mrs. F. Parsons.

Grade 10 Stages Play

The prizes were given out after the first high school play, staged by grade 10, was completed. Students from grades 9 to 12 witnessed the concert in the assembly hall of the school. The play was in the form of a radio hour with Ned Chapman as master of ceremonies.

The grade ten president, Doris Danner, opened the concert with a speech and then introduced Ned Chapman as "The Radio Announcer." The room chorus started the program with "School Days", followed with a tap dance by Dorothy Jamieson. Then came "The History of Lacombe" with Blyth Lamont and Tom Ford II.

Annah Thompson, Fay Thompson, Gordie Shaw, Bob Liska and Tom Ford I. were characters in the room play that brought plenty of laughs. The young girl (Annah T.) had two boys call on her and when her aunt (Fay T.) enters the room and sees her company she is horrified, and chases the boys from the house, amid much laughter from the audience.

Ned Chapman read the "grade ten news", which received much applause.

The program was enjoyed by all the students.

Mrs. S. Pillman held the lucky ticket and won the quilt, a very pretty one.

The regent, Mrs. P. W. Pratt, received the guests. Mrs. T. F. Roberts, vice-regent, and Mrs. W. W. Mills had charge of the bake table and bazaar and Mrs. H. E. Carruthers poured tea. Assisting in serving were Mrs. M. G. Cruickshank, Mrs. R. L. Ramsay, Mrs. A. Chiswell and Mrs. R. G. Gilmour.

Wedding of Interest Solemnized at Tees

Florence M. Ahern of Tees Wedded to George S. Reid of Clive

A lovely wedding took place in Tees at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Ahern, on Wednesday at high noon, Nov. 11th, when Miss Florence Maybele Ahern became the bride of Mr. George Sheridan Reid, only son of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Reid of Clive.

To the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march played by the groom's young cousin, Frances Reynolds of Clive, the bridal party entered the long, spacious living room from the stairway to a bower of white and green and under a wedding bell of white, and ferns from Vancouver Island.

The bridal party being assembled, Rev. Kettyls of the United Church then officiated at the ceremony.

The bride was gowned in beautiful ivory satin, the long bodice finished with puffed sleeves, moulded slenderly, and flaring into soft folds of a full skirt, and a long veil coronet of orange blossoms, carrying a bridal bouquet of roses and carnations.

Sister Is Matron of Honor

As matron of honor, her sister, Mrs. Wyman Shannon of Acadia Valley Alta., looked charming in her wedding gown of gleaming white satin, carrying rose and white chrysanthemums. Mr. Wyman Shannon attended the groom.

After the service the wedding party entered the dining room, where a very beautiful three-tiered wedding cake centered the bridal table, banked with feathery ferns and pink roses. Tall burning tapers in flower candle sticks with silver ribbons and tulle reached from the chandeliers above to the four corners of the table, where covers were laid for thirty.

Out-of-town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Reid, parents of the groom; Mr. George Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Reynolds and sons Jack and Robert and daughter Frances; Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Reynolds and little twin daughters, all of Clive; Mr. and Mrs. Wyman Shannon of Acadia Valley; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hanes of Alix; Mrs. T. A. Cunningham and Mrs. E. R. Fry assisting.

The happy couple motored to Calgary on their wedding trip, the bride travelling in a costume of gray tree bark with accessories to match.

P. A. Switzer Heads Shorthorn Club

Annual Meeting Held Saturday Last Proves Successful

Lengthy discussion centered around the question of the desirability of continuing their organization, when members of the Central Alberta Shorthorn Club met on Saturday, Nov. 21st, at Lacombe. It was generally agreed that a new program of work would need to be instituted during the ensuing year in order to preserve the benefits built up in past year. Organization of Junior Calf Clubs; working toward a greater uniformity of type in Shorthorn breeds, the subscription by members to a rigid system of culling or grading of their herds, starting foundation herds and carrying educational work into the newer areas of the province, and the creation of a definite cattle policy in the province were among suggested ideas for a program. Questions to be brought before the annual meeting for consideration are: An increase of the registration fee; culling and limited registration of Shorthorn cattle; and importation of bulls.

A resolution to be forwarded to the provincial meeting passed as follows: That a Shorthorn field day be held at the Lacombe Experimental Station, and that the Hon. Robert Gardiner, Dominion Minister of Agriculture be invited to be the speaker.

The full slate of retiring officers were returned in the election as follows: Honorary President, H. A. Craig, Deputy Minister of Agriculture; Honorary Vice-president, Dr. R. D. Sinclair, U. of A.; President, P. A. Switzer, Lacombe; Vice-president, Hugh Sharp, Lacombe; Secretary-treasurer, H. E. Wilson, Lacombe. Four new directors were added: George Calder, Innisfail; N. D. Latimer, Bowden; W. J. Hoar, Ponoka, and Henry Busby, Red Deer; the other directors being J. W. Biglands, S. Taylor, H. Talbot, H. S. Trame, S. Switzer, Wm. Douglas, Wm. Chessor, all Lacombe; J. Laing, Blackfalds; J. L. Walters, George Walters and John Elliott, R. Pethybridge, Tees, C. F. Damron, Bentley; W. W. Sharp, Stettler, and Peter Jamieson, Alix. Executive composed of president, vice-president, secretary and J. W. Biglands and H. S. Trame.

F. H. Newcombe, District Agriculturist, Red Deer and Arthur Newman, of the Dominion Livestock Branch, Lacombe, gave brief and informative talks.

Social Credit Party Holds Zone Meet Here

D. B. MacMillan, M.L.A., and N. Jacques, M.P., Speak; Officers Elected

An address was given by D. B. MacMillan, M.L.A., before a combined meeting of Zones four and five of the Social Credit Party, held for organization purposes, in the Oddfellows hall on Tuesday, Nov. 24th.

W. J. Trott was elected president of the Zone Assembly; vice-presiden, Robert Cole; secretary-treasurer, A. Jirsch, and these officers, together with the following delegates from each group, will constitute the zone council: No. 1, Lacombe, T. F. Roberts; Rustlers, Lacombe, D. Sheridan; Lakeside-Canyon, John Henderson; Blackfalds, John Laing. These delegates will also represent the zone at the constituency convention which is called for Monday afternoon, Nov. 30th, in the church hall, Lacombe.

N. Jacques, M.P., Addresses Meeting

N. Jaques, M.P., in opening his address, said he could not claim that Social Credit members had had much influence on other members of the House of Commons, and he did not believe anything could change their opinions, unless their votes were threatened. He was amazed that men holding high public positions find so much difficulty in understanding the simple principles underlying social credit. Other provinces, he felt, are only waiting to see how Social Credit works out in Alberta, and if it can be made a success here, then it will spread rapidly through the Dominion. Its success in Alberta he said, depends upon backing up the premier not only in word but in deed. Some Social Crediters who had refused prosperity certificates would also probably not wish to accept Alberta Credit, and unless it is accepted freely it will be of no use, said the speaker as he urged upon his listeners the necessity of standing behind their premier instead of listening to Chamber of Commerce, super-business men and economists.

Mr. MacMillan, M.L.A., went over the new Debt Adjustment Act, clause by clause, explaining its nature, and the reasons for certain clauses. Referring to a series of articles appearing in newspapers, written by the Mortgage Loans Association, Mr. MacMillan felt some action should be taken to prevent such agitation toward disobedience of the law. Protection is afforded by the act, and appeal to the Adjustment Board will bring such adjustment as may be required. Mr. MacMillan also read an item from the Financial Post which recognized that immediate steps to alleviate the present overwhelming burden of debt are necessary, and which he felt backs up the action taken by Alberta's government in reducing interest costs.

T. F. Roberts and James Russell, were chairman and secretary, respectively of the meeting.

Several resolutions were discussed for presentation at the constituency convention.

Women Hold Meeting Thursday

A splendid report of the year's work was given by Mrs. W. J. Trott, secretary of the Women's Social Credit Group, at their annual meeting on Thursday, Nov. 19th. Mrs. W. Cranna, vice-president, occupied the chair.

Discussion ensued concerning some amendments to the constitution recently recommended by the Didsbury group, with which local members are heartily in accord. It was decided to postpone the election of officers until a meeting with Group No. 1 could be held to consider uniting the two groups.

It is learned Bill Shook is now digging a cellar, and intends to move his house on it shortly. Maybe there's a reason—no telling.

The World of Wheat
By H. G. L. STRANGE
Director, "Crop Testing Plan"

ARTICLE No. 4

Wheat is probably the oldest of the world's crops.

A larger quantity of it is consumed than of any other foodstuff with the single exception of potatoes. In prehistoric times wheat was cultivated throughout Europe and was one of the most valuable cereals of ancient Persia, Greece and Egypt.

It has always been prized for the high quality bread which it produces—whenever it is possible people turn from foods made from rye, barley and oats to bread made from wheat.

It is grown in almost every country in the world, the only parts from which it is absent being the hot, low-lying regions of the tropics; Siam, however, being the one notable large country where no wheat is produced.

Its cultivation is simple and it is adapted to more varying soils and climatic conditions than any other food plant known.

It has ripened as far north as Skibotten in Norway and is cultivated around Archangel on the White Sea and in Verkhoyansk in Siberia, within the Artic circle. It is as well cultivated on the equator in Equador and Columbia.

Wheat is also grown at different altitudes, varying from sea level to a height of 15,000 feet in Tibet.

Prices have tended to be raised recently by the following: Demand for Canadian wheat increasing; subsoil moisture very deficient in Western Canada and spring wheat area of the U.S.A. and in parts of winter wheat belt; U.S. purchases large quantities of Argentina corn; rains delay planting in parts of Europe, production of dried beans in Danube basin less than normal.

These factors have tended to push prices down: Wheat surplus in Danubian countries estimated one hundred million (all-time record); large quantity of wheat afloat to world's markets; Esthonian production of potatoes increasing; Argentina shipping surprisingly large quantities of rye.

Sport-Scope
By JACK McCAUGHERTY

The last possible chance for Western Canada to come through with the Dominion rugby championship this season faded this week when the Canadian Rugby Union ruled the Regina Roughriders illegible. The "squawk" arose over Regina's five American players, who do not qualify under the residence rule. The Riders refuse to play without these players, so . . .

Meanwhile, the Ottawa Roughriders and the Toronto Argos will come together in their final game this Saturday. The winner of this combination then plays Sarnia for the Dominion title, the west (Winnipeg) giving up the crown which they captured last year.

How those "All-American" Regina Roughriders triumphed over last year's championship Pegs is a question unanswered in more than one rugby fan's mind. The final game in Calgary on Armistice Day showed Regina out on top with only a 3-1 margin over Alberta's representatives. The Riders showed, in my opinion, no outstanding player who would class with Oja, Fritz or Hansen of last year's leaders.

But strange things do happen.

Outstanding Double Bill at the Avalon

"A riot of mirth and melody." That is what all show critics exclaimed after seeing Laurel and Hardy in their latest hit, "The Bohemian Girl," showing this Thursday, Friday and Saturday at the Avalon Theatre in conjunction with "The Garden Murder Case."

'Tis said by those who have had the good fortune to see "The Bohemian Girl" that it is without doubt the best full length feature yet put out by these two well-known comedians.

Edmund Lowe, in "The Garden Murder Case," will carry you through an hour packed with thrills, comedy and action. A very well balanced double bill hit for the Avalon.

Falls Through Ice, Dancer Is Rescued

RIMBEY—Plunging into a hole in the ice as she was skating on the Blindman river south of town, Miss Duana Wiles was pulled to safety by her skating companions here. Instructor in gymnastics and dancing in Rimbey, Miss Wiles mistook a dark area on the ice for the shadow of bushes.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE
At all Christian Science churches next Sunday, the subject of the Lesson-Sermon will be "Ancient and Modern Necromancy, alias Mesmerism and Hypnotism, Denounced." The following is one of the Scriptural quotations contained in the Lesson-Sermon: "Then was brought unto him one possessed with a devil, blind, and dumb: and he healed him, insomuch that the blind and dumb both spake and saw" (Matthew 12:22). One of the correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, is as follows (page 466): "Our system of Mind-healing rests on the apprehension of the nature and essence of all being,—on the divine Mind and Love's essential qualities."

Meadowbrook

MEADOWBROOK.—We are very pleased to hear that Mike Kolyak's broken arm is progressing favorably. We hope Mike will soon be back at work.

Mr. Ernest Riley spent a short holiday in Calgary last week.

Our faithful mailman, Mr. Clarence Perkins, and Mr. James Kinley had a narrow escape when the steering gear of their car gave away, the car running down over the bank on the hill by Mr. Taylor's. Fortunately, it hit a tree, which held it, and the men were none the worse for their experience.

Shower for Miss Kinley

Quite a number of friends gathered at the home of Mrs. R. C. Kinley on Friday afternoon last, the event being a shower and farewell for Miss A. L. Kinley, formerly a resident here. Miss Kinley left Sunday on the stream-lined train. Many useful and pretty gifts were received and all good wishes go with her to her new home in Port Kells, B.C.

We will welcome you all to a whist drive and basket social in the Meadowbrook Schoolhouse on Saturday evening, Dec. 5th. There will also be a short program. Proceeds are in aid of the Christmas treats.

Secretary-Treasurer. n26c

CARD OF THANKS

At a general meeting of our organization held on November 21st, a hearty vote of thanks was extended to all those who assisted in any way at our amateur contest and dance on November 11th. To the contestants who put on such an excellent show we are particularly grateful. We congratulate the winners, and wish the losers better luck next time. We appreciate the support of the large crowd who attended. To those who were not there, all we can say is, hope to see you next year!

YOU CAN'T tell by looking at a reading lamp whether it is giving enough light for comfortable, easy seeing. But there is a definite amount of light that everyone should have to prevent eye-strain. And no one home in ten has this necessary amount!

Call us up today, and we'll send out an expert who can measure your lights with a Sight Meter. Then you'll know whether your family has enough light. This service is free.

Insurance to Lloyd's Raises Agents' Ire; Manning to Take Rest

By T. B. Windross

Edmonton insurance agents crossed swords with Hon. E. C. Manning during the week over the transfer of $7,000,000 insurance on provincial property, including the telephone system, to Lloyds of London. Mr. Manning declared the agents in a statement to the press gave an erroneous impression of a discussion he had with a delegate representing the agents at the time of the transfer.

Mr. Manning pointed out that the transfer of the insurance from about 500 agents representing various companies to one company would mean a saving to the people of Alberta of $50,000 annually.

General regret is felt that owing to ill health, Hon. E. C. Manning, minister of trade and industry and provincial secretary, would be compelled under doctor's orders to take an extended rest from all work and responsibility. For some time Mr. Manning has not been well, and has suffered from a severe cold, and this added to his increasingly heavy duties has undermined his health, which never was robust.

Complimentary Banquet Tendered To Walter Simpson

ample hard to emulate, and he extended his hearty congratulations.

Joseph Renshaw claimed he knew Walter's signature long before he met him personally, and he knew a M.D. secretary's job was exacting, but Mr. Simpson was in a class by himself. He told the gathering of all the reports that reached him for inspection, he said he had yet to receive one from M.D. of Crown that was in any way derogatory, which was a credit to Mr. Simpson.

It was his pleasure, he said, to be present on such an auspicous occasion, and congratulated those responsible for it, reading a poem which he felt apropos to the occasion, as follows:

DO IT NOW

If with pleasure you are viewing
any work a man is doing,
If you like him or you love him,
tell him now;
Don't withhold your approbation
till the parson makes oration,
And he lies with snowy lilies o'er his brow;
For no matter how you shout it,
he won't really care about it;
He won't know how many tear-drops
you have shed;
If you think some praise is due him,
now's the time to slip it to him,
For he cannot read his tombstone
when he's dead.

More than fame and more than money
Is the comment kind and sunny,
And the hearty warm approval of a friend,
For it gives to life a savor and it makes you stronger, braver,
And it gives you heart and spirit
to the end;
If he earns your praise, bestow it;
If you like him, let him know it;
Let the words of true encouragement
be said;
Do not wait till life is over, and he's underneath the clover,
FOR HE CANNOT READ HIS TOMBSTONE WHEN HE'S DEAD.

Introduced as the dean of reeves, Harry Brownlow, Reeve of Lorne M.D., paid tribute to "Walter" on behalf of visiting reeves and councillors, and referred to the never-failing help and courtesies he received from Mr. Simpson.

Fred Sissons, ex-reeve and councillor of Crown M.D., spoke on behalf of that district and eulogized on the efficiency of Mr. Simpson as an outstanding secretary-treasurer, in whom the district had the fullest confidence. The location of every culvert in M.D. of Crown was chosen by Mr. Simpson, he said, and his ability was unquestioned, and he hoped he would remain in his present position for many years to come. The speaker also paid a nice tribute to Mr. Simpson's assistant, Miss Cameron.

W. J. Brady of Edberg, Alta., president of the Municipal Secretaries' Association, and George Jensen, representing Richardson Road Machinery Co. of Edmonton, also spoke, congratulating the guest of honor. Mr. Brady remarked that it was nice to see faithfulness, ability and honesty recognized with such a pleasing function.

"Walter" Replies

To the singing of "He's a Jolly Good Fellow," E. Walter Simpson jovially replied. He said he felt embarrassed by all the nice things said about him and found himself in a difficult position, as he usually occupied the "listening role."

Following his father's footsteps was apparently a natural sequence, as his father was a secretary-treasurer before him. He recalled some of the weather conditons he had experienced in his work in past years, and he believed climatic conditions had changed for the better in the last 40 years.

From the bottom of his heart he thanked the gathering for their kindness and said he would never forget the honor shown him.

Mr. Simpson came from Spilsby, Lincolnshire, England, in May, 1894, and operated a farm eight miles southwest of Lacombe, which he still owns.

Appointed in 1906

He was first appointed secretary-treasurer of Crown M.D. on February 2nd, 1906, and conducted the business from his farm, until an office was opened in the building now occupied by Jenkins' Groceteria, then known as the Winslow Block.

In 1920 the office was moved to its present location.

Adding to the enjoyment of the evening, solos were sung by R. Rhind and T. Wilks, accompanied by Mrs. R. Warren.

Other out-of-town visitors included P. McNicol, Adams Road Machinery Co., Edmonton, and L. Lindsay, Canada Ingot Iron Co.
